The Holy Quran: The Last Holy Book

The Following is the introduction of the author about the book: I was motivated to write this book because I saw that a large number of people gave themselves the title “Shia” without respecting this title or being aware of its rights. A sensible person is one who knows the value of that which he possesses, so he can honour it if it deserves to be honoured and he can treasure it if it deserves to be treasured, and he can protect it from anything that will ruin it. I intentionally collected the Ahadith that reveal the status of the Shia, the rewards and the honour that Allah has prepared for them in the highest levels of Paradise, and the status of the pious Imams in Allah’s eyes. Therefore, those who read this book will learn with certainty the value of a Shia, and thereby respect and honour this title and stay committed to their obligatory duties that they have as Shia. May those who benefit from the contents of this book increasingly pray for me. This book is entitled Bish?ratul Mu??af? Le Sh?’atil Murta?? (The Glad Tidings of Mu??af? for the Shia of Murta??) and I have not included any ?ad?th in it except the most authentic and from the most trusted scholars. I seek nothing but to please Allah and I ask nothing but the prayers of those who read this book. I desire nothing but to attain nearness to the best of the creation (the Messenger of Allah) and his purified family, the Imams of guidance. May Allah's blessings be on them, to the extent of the number of every (grain of) sand and every stone. I ask Allah for piety and support, for He is the best supporter, who with His generosity, listens to prayers and grants them.

Dying and Living for Allah: The Last Will of Khurram Murad is essentially a wake up call, not just to his kith and kin, but all the Muslims. This Will is a nasihah - advising, commending and enjoining a life based on loyalty to Allah, striving for the akhira and being particular to one's responsibilities towards others.

This book explores the paths traveled by four selected sufis in their spiritual adventures. Studies conducted by scholars are carefully compiled using terms that can easily understood by the general public. The book is the outcomes of reading and research from various printed and electronic materials which focusing on the concept of drawing closer to Allah swt. These four classic Sufi figures have different paths in terms of thought patterns and applications, but the purpose remains the same, to achieve the essence of love of Allah swt. This book does not symbolize my ideology but it is a continuation of knowledge that discusses the stages that every sufi has gone through and experienced. This book is the Second Edition of the book first published in 2011. It is one of the first books of its kind in the market clearly explaining and expanding the Attributes of God in the Judeo-Christian and Islamic traditions. With the expansion of the book in its Second Edition, it also contains discussion of Prophets and Messengers and in particular discusses the status of Abraham in all the Three monotheistic traditions, The Jewish, Christian and Islamic traditions. This book is about God and our relationship with God. What is more interesting about the Second Edition is that it expands the possibility of more research on the concept of prophethood in the family of Abrahamic faiths. Further, it discusses the status of Abraham according to the theology of St. Paul comparing it briefly with Islam. This book discusses also the status of Jesus in the Jewish and in the Islamic traditions.

Learning the Holy Quran while reciting it and understanding it is mandatory for every Muslim household and a heavy weight on our shoulders as parents. Every parent must instill interest and love for the Holy Quran among their children at an early age, so they can grow up with an Islamic mindset and lifestyle. The Holy Quran is the verbatim word of Allah, and every household should set a time daily to develop and grow their connection and their children's connection to these Words to nourish their souls. Just like our physical bodies need food and water to survive, our souls need the Holy Quran and the remembrance of how Allah to enrich, nourish, and give life to our soul. Getting to Know and Love the Holy Quran. This children's book introduces the Holy Quran to your children in an easy, fun, and educational way. The goal of this book is to teach your children the basics they need to know about the Holy Quran and express the importance of learning it, so it can spark their interest in developing a strong love and bond for the Holy Quran.

Do you sometimes feel that your Salah [prayer] is not quite having the effect it is supposed to on you and your life? Have you ever considered that perhaps it is because we are not giving it its due importance? It seems we have lost [or were never taught] that ability to 'connect' in Salah that makes all the difference in its effect on us. Remember this: The sweetness of this life lies in remembering Him, the sweet-ness of the next life lies in seeing Him! The next time you proceed for prayer, go because you love Him, go because you miss Him and long to be with Him. Feel your heart flutter. Only then, will you be on your way to attaining that inner peace and comfort Salah was prescribed for. This book is a compilation of the Ramadan 2008 e-mail series, "Taste It!", which summarized the popular lectures "How to Taste the True Beauty of Salah" presented by Mishari al-

Kharraz. The following publication has been edited in order for it to be published into book form along with the inclusion of Arabic text. As the author notes about our Creator, 'The sweetness of this life lies in re- membering Him, the sweetness of the next life lies in seeing Him! The next time you proceed for prayer, go because you love Him, go because you miss Him and long to be with Him. Feel your heart flutter. Only then, will you be on your way to attaining that inner peace and comfort Salah was prescribed for.'

I have written many books and articles on various topics but since 2013, I have devoted myself fully in writing the interpretation of the Holy Quran in English and with the grace of Allah, I have completed the whole Quran on 29th October 2020 with 84 books. I believe there is a great need in the whole world for the correct interpretation of the Holy Quran to be written in English. Currently, there is a great misunderstanding about Islam among Muslims and non-Muslims globally. The misunderstanding of the meaning of the Holy Quran among Muslims will lead to the wrong practice of Islam which leads to the wrong actions of Muslims. The wrong actions of Muslims will lead to misunderstandings about Islam among Muslims and non-Muslims. The wrong actions of the Muslims have led to many miseries and wars among Muslims. The wrong actions of Muslims have also led to many wars and clashes between Muslims and non-Muslims. In order to avoid miseris, wars and clashes from taking place between the whole mankind in the whole world, the whole mankind in the whole world need to understand the true teaching of Islam. There is no other way for the whole mankind to understand the true teaching of Islam unless the whole mankind is able to read and understand the correct interpretation of the Holy Quran. The whole mankind is only able to read and understand the correct interpretation of the Holy Quran when it is written in the universal language of the world (English). For this very reason I have written the interpretation of the Holy Quran in English. Prof. Nasoha Bin Saabin

Man is creature of God for the believer, in Islam, the last religion descended by Allah, Muslims must obey His orders to reach His mercy of His heaven. The main tasks of Muslims are established regular 5 times prayers, read Holy Quran and implement it in daily life. In reality most Muslims are obedient prayers, but actually they are godless or do not know how to deal with Allah. The book tells life journey of the author who has lived in top managerial position until Allah took it back and starting journey to find God. The journey was so painful, miserable and unpredictable until he found out who he is, who the God is and what He would like us to do. He practices the finding and finds happiness in life. It told about how is like to be and always together with Allah all the time, how all negative traits gradually disappeared and what steps must be done to get mercy of Allah. It also told what went wrong with the others, what they think of and what they miss, although they are obedient Muslims.

This book, Allah: Understanding God in Islam, apart from describing what Islam is, explains that all prophets sent by God, including Prophet Abraham, Prophet Moses, and Prophet Jesus (Jesus Christ), were Islams prophets too and that Muslims must believe in them. The book specifically informs readers that Allah is the same God of every human being of any race, culture, or religion. The book delves into the messages of the Quran, Islams Holy Book, to highlight the importance of knowing the true nature of God, called Allah in Islam. It points out that the proper knowledge of God would compel people to adhere to His commandments in having faith in Him and His practical guidance to acquire a close and rewarding relationship with Allah and His creations as well as with all human beings, who, though diversified in various nationalities and faiths, can be united in spirit and togetherness. The book also emphasises that following Allahs guidance with understanding would facilitate people to appreciate the natural gifts Allah has given to every person and so, instead of getting overwhelmed by ignorance and falling into the trap of hatred and hostility, enable them to live a happy, peaceful, and harmonious life.

THIS IS THE FINAL TESTAMENT This Guidance Book is the Light, the Advice, the Remembrance, the Criterion, the Healer, the Noble, the Truth, the Admonishment, the Good Tiding, the knowledge, the Clear, the Mother of the Book, the Preserved and protected by the power of Allah. No one can change or alter his original version. This Final testament aims to unite people and guide them to the truth, emphasizing on justice, and the rules of how to govern human life and explanations about the Resurrection and afterlife. It also informs us of direct and indirect information about known and unknown scientific theories and facts. This book is coming from the world of unseen, beyond the comprehension of our visible world. It is not limited to any time, place, or person; it is for all people. This book is more important to the Creator than heaven and earth. The superiority of this book over all other words and speeches is like Allah's superiority over his creatures. This book also has decades of the history of civilization. This heavenly book contains, in brief, the Scriptures revealed to the previous Messengers in different eras. This book will lead mankind from the darkness of ignorance and disbelief into the light of understanding the one religion and believing in it; It steers people away from injustice and immorality.

This is the Final and most comprehensive of all Divine Books, for it answers all the needs of mankind and establishes men's welfare. This book heals us from all our social, economical, political, and psychological problems. For the humanity, it is a book of laws, prayers, wisdom, commands, invitations, invocation, reflection, and worship to one God: His name is Allah.

Islam presents an astonishing situation as it rejects all except those totally committing their will and mind to Allah, Muhammad, And The Qur'an, along with several other authority figures and traditions. The Bible accepts any and all who will come as humble sinners and seek the One God through the sacrifice of the Messiah of the Jews. This book is in total agreement with the Qur'an when the Qur'an says that most Jews and most Christians are evil, corrupt, and liars-by the standards of right and wrong found in the Qur'an that is. The alternative is also true and again in agreement with the Qur'an. Muslims do not and may not adhere To The teachings of the Bible, which results in being lost by biblical teachings. The simple truth of the Qur'an is that Jews and Christians do not follow the Allah of the Qur'an, except a few who become Muslim. Also true is that the Muslims do not follow the God of the Bible, except a few who accept Jesus. God of the Bible is not Allah of the Qur'an, and Allah of the Qur'an is not God of the Bible, by name, by description, by personality, by judgment, or by love. The Qur'an has its greatest error when it says it is the completion and continuation of biblical revelation. This is fully accepted by Muslims because they have been taught that the Bible is corrupted, not the true one, and they do not read the Bible.

This handbook offers a unique and original collection of analytical studies in Islamic economics and finance, and constitutes a humble addition to the literature on new economic thinking and global finance. The growing risks stemming from higher debt, slower growth, and limited room for policy maneuver raise concerns about the ability and propensity of modern economies to find effective solutions to chronic problems. It is important to understand the structural roots of inherent imbalance, persistence-in-error patterns, policy and governance failures, as well as moral and ethical failures. Admittedly, finance and economics have their own failures, with abstract theory bearing little relation with the real economy, uncertainties and vicissitudes of economic life. Economic research has certainly become more empirical despite, or perhaps because of, the lack of guidance from theory. The analytics of Islamic economics and finance may not differ from standard frameworks, methods, and techniques used in conventional economics, but may offer new perspectives on the making of financial crises, nature of credit cycles, roots of financial system instability, and determinants of income disparities. The focus is placed on the logical coherence of Islamic economics and finance, properties of Islamic capital markets, workings of Islamic banking, pricing of Islamic financial instruments, and limits of debt financing, fiscal stimulus and conventional monetary policies, inter alia. Readers with investment, regulatory, and academic interests will find the body of analytical evidence to span many areas of economic inquiry, refuting thereby the false argument that given its religious tenets, Islamic economics is intrinsically narrative, descriptive and not amenable to testable implications. Thus, the handbook may contribute toward a redefinition of a dismal science in search for an elusive balance between rationality, ethics and morality, and toward a remodeling of economies based on risk sharing and prosperity for all humanity

To know that you are loved by God is one of the greatest gifts of faith.

Does Christianity have the power to change lives and keep believers on a righteous path?

Does Islam have the answers? There is a collision of thought and deeds in today's world, a clash between faith and finance, between peaceful belief and violent fervor. In Conflict:

Christianity's Love vs. Islam's Submission, the captivating new book from Dr. Murl Edward Gwynn, deeply explores the contrasting tenets of Christianity and Islam and reveals how the world's changing religious and spiritual realities impact just about everything we hold dear.

Christians, especially those of us in the United States, have fallen asleep to the dangers to their faith and allowed material wealth to take precedence in their lives. Meanwhile, Islam, despite its practice of forced submission, has become the most populous and fastest-growing religion in the world. Dr. Gwynn's clarion call seeks to awaken us to the vast differences between Christianity and Islam, not the least of which are the true identity of Jesus the Son,
