? Welcome to your new spiritual journal. I've created this journal following the methods of many popular devotionals and bible studies. These spiritual journals for women to write in include the following sections: During my daily prayer and devotion time, I enjoy writing down the verses I want to study and remember. I've designed the first pages in each section titled "Verses for today" for this purpose. You can write your favorite verses, verses that come to mind during your prayer time, or anything that inspires you on these pages. On the second page in each section you'll find an empty scroll followed by "what God is saying to me". I enjoy drawing one word from my devotion time that sticks out to me such as wisdom, obedience, understanding, or love. Then I'll follow that focus word with thoughts or phrases that will help me in my study or follow up. I hope this page inspires your own creativity and focus. The third and fourth pages of each section are labeled "Prayer" and I've included the ACTS method of prayer as a guide, if needed. On the next page I've included some of my favorite bible verses on prayer to inspire and remind you that God loves your prayers. I've found that after studying the word with a devotional, writing down my prayers is powerful and comforting. I hope you find this journal helpful and inspirational.
